The primary responsibility for the welfare of the handicapped is with the State Governments. Nevertheless the Government of India in its catalytic role has been assisting the State Govts, as well as voluntary organisations in this regard. In addition, services for early detection and medical treatment are available in hospitals run by the Central Govt, and State Governments. Details of funds allocated for these are not available. However, an amount of Rs. 20.34 crores was earmarked in the budget of Ministry of Welfare for welfare of the handicapped during 1988-89.
